Leasing Up in Beaumont

LINC's first veterans' community is nearing completion! Illinois Avenue Apartments in Beaumont will feature 38 new one- and three-bedroom apartments, including supportive housing. Painting, cabinetry, and landscaping are in progress as this Riverside County site nears completion. Learn more.

Finishing Touches in Anderson

New affordable family apartments and a community center are going up in Anderson! Windows, balconies, and insulation are all in at Diamond Street Apartments. Future residents of the 45 new apartments will enjoy features such as energy efficient appliances and a community garden. Applications are now being accepted for the lottery. Learn more.

Topped Out in DTLA

Mosaic Gardens at Westlake has become part of the skyline in the City of Los Angeles. These 125 new apartments will serve individuals, families, and seniors in need of affordable and supportive housing. The large community space, including a health and wellness room, will host multifaceted resident services when the building is completed later this year.

The Nightingale Breaks Ground

The Nightingale will create 29 supportive housing units for frequent users of the Los Angeles County Department of Health Services who have experienced homelessness. These new apartments in the Florence-Firestone neighborhood of unincorporated Los Angeles County will be LEED certified and finish construction in 2019.
